

EPREUVE DE COMPREHENSION RESTITUTION LEXIQUE POUR LA RESTITUTION

TYPE OF DOC	TOPIC	SOURCE	BACKGROUND NOISE
detailed report live update (on) debate talk show interview book club on air film review press conference news bulletin business report	arts sports education politics movie play novel exhibition	BBC Radio 4 BBC World Skynews CNN Fox News NPR ABC Radio New Zealand VOA (Voice of America)	the soundtrack of a movie the theme song of a show the roar of traffic muffled explosions the audience clapping the audience booing
SPEAKER(S)	LOGIC OF DOC	TONE OF SPEAKER(S)
anchorman reporter journalist Arts correspondent talk-show host guest member of the panel witness	restore clarity dispel confusion pave the way for chronology	calm, cool, composed courteous, cordial deliberate good-natured, friendly amused empathetic, sympathetic subdued, reserved, low-key puzzled, unsure	embittered, antagonistic cold, angry, cross, furious vengeful, menacing contemptuous, mocking aggressive, provocative arrogant, boastful self-assured complacent ironic, sardonic
ANCHORMAN	GUEST(S)	SITUATIONS OF CONFLICT	MOMENTS OF AGREEMENT
cross live to introduce, welcome interrupt broach a new subject move on to another topic take up the issue, insist return to the theme of turn to a new participant parry an attack quibble with, quip summarize point out, mention, hint, allude stress, highlight call for a truce / less animosity try to pacify the debate retrain / hold back X prompt X to explain allocate speaking time hand over to (donner la parole à)	claim, state contend that (affirmer que) imply concede, be willing to admit mitigate, qualify ... pt of view rephrase, reconsider, ponder back ... with proof, point to expound, hammer out the facts deny, reject debunk, denounce, question counterattack make a show of amusement laugh outright, giggle, snort snicker, wheeze (thru laughter) blurt out that... renege on a promise (manquer à) vindicate (légitimer, justifier)	retort, fire back reply, rebutt lose ... nerve / temper smash/shatter X's arguments pummel w/ questions become ++ hostile/contentious show self-restraint remain unmoved not to rise to / take the bait	reinforce / bolster X's argument echo X's thoughts speak in one voice claim to share X's view/outlook
STRATEGIES OF EVASION	EMOTIONS
side-step the issue stall for time utter a standard disclaimer point out the larger context postpone a definitive answer hide behind jargon / clichés claim it is all rhetoric shift the focus to refuse to take sides	upset caught off-balance ill at ease flustered (agité, troublé) tearful aghast (atterré) dumbfounded (sidéré) bewildered (perplexe, dérouté) flabbergasted (sidéré) ambivalent cautious wary (méfiant)		